DEATH'S HARVEST

The Grim Reaper has been swinging His Sickle Industriously

MRS. D. S. MOODY

A telegram was received here yesterday bearing the sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. D. S. Moody which occurred yesterday at 10:20 a. m. at the home of her parents in Greenville, Ala., where she had gone two weeks ago for treatment from her family physician. Mr. Moody left Ocala Wednesday at noon for Greenville, but it is thought that he did not reach her in time to be present at the last sad moments.

Mrs. Moody has been in poor health for several years, but no one thought that there was any immediate danger, as she was no worse than usual when she left Ocala.

She was formerly Miss Lyde Abrams, and was married to Mr. Moody about ten years ago. A little daughter blessed the union, to be taken away when three years of age.

Mrs. Moody was a lovely, patient, Christian woman, possessed of many excellent traits of character that endeared her to all who were fortunate in possessing her friendship. The blow is a severe one to her husband, who through all her failing health gave her the most devoted care and attention.

The funeral took place today and the body was laid to rest in the family burial ground in Greenville. Mr. Moody has the sympathy of the entire community in his sorrow.

DR. DUNKLIN

Dr. E. C. Dunklin, aged about sixty-five years, died yesterday morning at his home at South Lake Weir. The doctor's health has been failing for several years and his death was the result of a general giving away of the exhausted vital forces.

Dr. Dunklin came originally from Alabama, and was highly connected. Supreme Judge Haralson is a brother-in-law. Dr. Dunklin was very wealthy at one time. He came to Florida about twenty years ago and resided first in Citrus county and later for twelve or fifteen years in Ocala until two years ago when he moved to his South Lake Weir property. He was a member of the Christian church.

Dr. Dunklin is the father of Mrs. C. E. Connor and Rev. E. M. C. Dunklin, the Baptist minister at Stanton.

Undertaker J. A. Pittman went down to the lake yesterday and superintended the arrangements for the funeral.

MRS. MEADE

Mrs. Mead, the nurse, died Wednesday in Tampa, where she was visiting her children, very suddenly of heart disease. The remains were prepared for burial by the Tampa Furniture Company and shipped to Ocala yesterday, and interred by Mr. Melver in the old cemetery.
